1. At 3:30 p.m. on 17 January, about 100 troops with black epaulets and 10 trucks, [redacted] and 100 troops wearing red-bordered black epaulets and equipped with 15 trucks, [redacted] were detained at the Wuensdorf railroad station. The troops left toward Hindenburg Kaserne. On 21 January, 25 senior officers with much baggage arrived aboard a train from the direction of Dresden. They left toward Zehrendorfer Strasse. Source learned that, in early February, the construction of a Soviet hotel was to start near the railroad station. <sup>1</sup>
